

ARA & Friends Mexican Riviera Cruise September 25-30, 2009

There is nothing like ending a wonderful, busy reunion with a relaxing cruise! After enjoying the sights and sounds of beautiful San Diego, join us for a short cruise to the Mexican Riviera directly from the convenient Port of San Diego. Royal Caribbean Cruise Line will again be our host this year on their beautiful Radiance of the Seas.

We will depart San Diego September 25, reaching Ensenada, Baja, Mexico the next day. First discovered in 1542 by Portuguese navigator Don Juan Rodriguez, this harbor city is now home to some 200,000 people and is a popular weekend destination. A restful day at sea follows, with plenty of time for fellowship and onboard activities. Next up is Cabo San Lucas, where you might choose to snorkel in the Sea of Cortez or embark on a deluxe coastal cruise past Lover's Beach, Land's End and other highlights on a gorgeous catamaran. The scenery is breathtaking! We'll have one more day at sea before disembarking back in San Diego on September 30.

There are so many things to do onboard this wonderful ship, or do nothing at all. Of course we'll have a party...or two...onboard, and a bottle of wine is included in every cabin.
